PERSONAL PROJECTS

Orbital (10/2023 - 10/2023)
- I have created this website in NASA's hackathon and this website contains data about space achievement and space missions data.

Medisync (08/2023 - 09/2023)
- I have tried to make this website for the Smart India Hackathon and in this I've tried to solve the problem of medicine availability at current time.

YouTube Clone (06/2023 - 06/2023)
- The reason for making this clone is to check my HTML & CSS language skills and found that by the time I get more knowledge and proficiency in this both language
